Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Harold Buckingham has been an active civic and state leader in Rapid City and South Dakota since 1934; and,

WHEREAS, Harold Buckingham has been a model businessman who started with nothing and has demonstrated, through his hard work and perseverance, how America's free enterprise system carries intrinsic rewards and community contribution in such diversified areas as home construction, education, retailing and nursing homes; and,

WHEREAS, Harold Buckingham has unselfishly given of his time, talents and other resources for the betterment of Rapid City and South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Harold Buckingham has demonstrated his enthusiastic loyalty and dedication to Rapid City and South Dakota through his active involvement and leadership in organizations such as the United Way, First Presbyterian Church, the South Dakota Legislature, the South Dakota Board of Vocational Education, the County School Board, the Rapid City School Board, the Red Cross, the Bennett-Clarkson Hospital, and numerous other organizations; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor of the state of South Dakota to make note of this outstanding citizen;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 24, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

[illegible] HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
